

Riverwind Casino announces COOP Ale Works Concert Series

Pat Green to open series June 22

NORMAN, OKLAHOMA (March 12, 2019) – Officials at Riverwind Casino unveiled today a new concert series sponsored by COOP Ale Works.

The COOP Ale Works Concert Series features five upcoming concerts focusing on country music. Texas music legend Pat Green headlines the first concert on June 22.

“We are excited to work with COOP Ale Works on this special concert series, and we think our fans will enjoy it as well,” said Justin Yahola, general manager of Riverwind Casino.

“Our partnership with Riverwind Casino to create the concert series allows us to be part of bringing even more great entertainers and events to Oklahoma and our community,” said Sean Mossman, director of sales and marketing for COOP Ale Works.

Pat Green has been called one of the most influential modern stars in Texas’ long country music tradition. Green has been nominated for three Grammy awards and sold more than two million records. Tickets for the June 22 concert go on sale March 15. Subsequent concerts in the series will be announced soon.

All five shows in the COOP Ale Works Concert Series will take place in Riverwind Casino’s Showplace Theatre, which provides audiences with an intimate entertainment experience like none other in the region. The state-of-the-art venue seats 1,500 people.
