

William Shatner brings movie screening, Q&A to Riverwind Casino Feb. 14
Only OKC metro appearance for award-winning actor

NORMAN, OKLA. (Oct. 14, 2019) – William Shatner will boldly go to Riverwind Casino Feb. 14, bringing with him a screening of Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan and a question-and-answer session with fans.

The movie begins at 7 p.m. and Shatner will appear on the stage of the Showplace Theatre following a screening of the classic Star Trek film for a lively conversation with the audience. The actor, famed for his portrayal of Capt. James T. Kirk, will share fascinating and humorous stories from his years in the captain's chair and his 50-year career as an award-winning actor, producer, director and writer. Fans will also have an opportunity to ask him questions during the audience-led Q&A session.

Tickets for this event go on sale at the box office at 10 a.m. Friday, Oct. 18. They also will be available online beginning at 11 a.m. A limited number of VIP tickets will be available, which include a post-show photo op with Shatner. More information about the event is available at www.riverwind.com/william-shatner.

In 1966, Shatner originated the role of Capt. Kirk in the television series Star Trek, a show that spawned a feature film franchise where Shatner returned to his most famous role in seven of the Star Trek movies, one of which he directed. He's won Emmys and a Golden Globe for his portrayal of lawyer Denny Crane on both The Practice and Boston Legal. He received four more Emmy nominations as well as other Golden Globe and SAG Award nods.

His love of music inspired him to record the critically acclaimed album Has Been. His book, Leonard: My Fifty-Year Friendship with a Remarkable Man, appeared on the New York Times Bestseller list, and his newest book, Spirit of the Horse: A Celebration in Fact and Fable, was released in May 2017. Shatner continues to act, write, produce and direct while still making time to work with charities and further his passion in equestrian sports. He and his wife, Elizabeth, and three married children live in Los Angeles.
